

Dear Parents,

As you know Odyssey of the Mind is a kids event but it cannot be made possible without parents help as volunteers. We have a very good response from students and parents for the program. I would want every child to be able to be in a team. Each team needs a coach, co-coach, and judge who are most often parents and teachers. There can be no team without a coach and each team can take a maximum of 7 kids. If you plan to be a coach or a co-coach your child is guaranteed a slot in the program. On top of that, you get to take the creativity journey with your child. What a nice way to spend some quality time and effort in your child's development. Having said this, I would ask you to step up and volunteer to be a COACH! Looking forward for the form below to be filled and returned by you to the office. If you have any doubts, please feel free to email me at hiralantala@hotmail.com and we can talk. YOU CAN DO IT!
